Book Review: 'Her Smoke Rose Up Forever,' By James Tiptree ...

Though there are some outliers (which I will get to), the lion's share of Her Smoke Rose Up Forever is bound up in men committing violence toward women, of male fantasies that end in rape or murder, and of masculinity that plays itself into the downfall of humanity.

Speculiction...: Review of Her Smoke Rose Up Forever by ...

Her Smoke Rose Up Forever fully demonstrates what a fine and varied writer Tiptree was, a writer whose stories truly deserve the too-frequently-applied label of "uncompromising vision." Alice Sheldon once said, "I've always been bugged by writers who neglect to think things through, to work up the whole scene, with those vital 'trivial' factors which actually cost so much effort and can make or break grand themes."
