Stay examines friendship, family, loneliness and how to stand up for yourself and get the life you want. If you like books about messy relationships, hilarious dogs, or chick-lit that packs a punch, this is the book for you. I'm just hoping Larkin's next book is as fun as her first!

Review: Stay by Allie Larkin / So Obsessed With

Larkin debuts with a funny and touching story about love, loss, and dog ownership. Twenty-something Van Leone, fresh from serving as maid of honor at the wedding of her childhood best friend and the man Van's been in love with since college, impulsively buys a German shepherd puppy on the Internet while drowning her sorrows in vodka and a late-night Rin Tin Tin marathon.
